Chinese "Democrat" Executed?

Nanking, Oct. 12.
The Democratic League spokesman asserted at a news conference today that their chairman for North-West China, Tu Ping-cheng, was executed by the Government at Shan on falsified charges of opium handling and pro-Communist activities.

A formal protest was being made to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, they said.

Spokesman Lo Lung-chi said Tu Ping-cheng was arrested by the Shan Police Bureau on March 20 and was shot by the order of the Shan Martial Law Command without the formality of a trial.

The statement by the League which was recently charged by Government spokesmen holding an Tong with actively supporting the Communists, said, "This so-called execution by public officials is far more serious than last year's murders of two League leaders in Kunming, which were at least disguised under the pretext of assassinations."

The statement said the 61-year-old Tu, who was secretary-general in Shanghai at the time, the Generalissimo was kidnapped in the "Shan Incident" was shot along with 10 other Chinese in a mass execution at Shan.

The Next To Go?

Meanwhile, Kuomintang officials said Christian General Feng Yuxiang, who attacked the Nationalist Government in statements in New York, was very likely to be among the first purged from the party.

Under new regulations all Kuomintang members must re-register.

One official said that "it is quite evident that, if Feng attempts to retain membership, he will be ousted under the provisions of the 'purge' directive which denies membership to those guilty of disloyalty." Associated Press.

Death by stabbing of a 23-year-old Christian Democrat Party worker in a brawl with Left Wing Socialists and Communists just before midnight last night highlighted the fierceness of today's election struggle between Catholics and Communism.

Election day dawned bright and warm and the first of an estimated 700,000 voters began to cast their ballots throughout the city at 6 a.m.

Spokesman at all party headquarters predicted that over 70 per cent of the 900,000 registered voters would cast ballots.

JEWS RAIN PAMPHLET BOMBS ON UNO Arabs Still Keep Up Palestine Nerve War

Britain's Worst Trade Balance

London, Oct. 12.
The Government admitted a "worst yet" adverse trade balance of £200,000,000 for the past three months in the first of a series of "three minute reports to the nation" published in the Sunday newspapers in advertisement form.

Number one of the reports said it would be issued every fortnight and suggested that readers "pick it up and talk it over."

Under the headline: "£200,000,000, our worst yet in three months," the report said: "In July and September we bought £513,000,000 of goods and sold only £313,000,000 to pay for them."

"That was our worst yet," it said.

Then the report states its theme in bold face: "Ten per cent more national production will turn the tide and bring the beginning of the end of austerity."

In big type at the end of the report is the slogan: "Ten per cent more will turn the tide."

Among the "target points" listed by the report are: "In the first eight months of 1947 our volume of exports was up five per cent on pre-war. Next June it must be 40 per cent up."

"Coal production is a week behind the target," United Press.

Lake Success, Oct. 12.
The United Nations was "bombed" from the air on Saturday with several thousand leaflets urging delegates to wake up and open Palestine to Jewish immigration.

Most of the leaflets missed the United Nations area, fluttering over nearby fields but a few fell on the sloping lawn leading to the main entrance of the building.

The leaflets, dropped from one of a small number of planes circling the area, were addressed to United Nations delegates and signed by Jacob Paul Lefkowitz as "an American citizen."

The leaflets deprecated all the debate going on and declared: "Action is needed."

Meanwhile, in Cairo, the spokesman for the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, commenting on the United States advocacy of the partition of Palestine, said: "The Egyptian Government is bound by the policy of the Arab League regarding Palestine."

"This policy is the defence of Palestine's future status as an independent Arab state by any means, including force."

The feminist leader, Madame Huda Sharawi, pledged that Arab women were ready to join their menfolk in the fight for Palestine.

Nearly 230,000 fully armed and trained troops, roughly 20 divisions, were placed at the disposal of the Arab League today by five of the seven Arab States pledged to send military aid to the Arabs in Palestine in the event of a British withdrawal from Palestine, says Reuters.

The Arab States, "battered order" was disclosed to a sub-committee of the Arab Council at what is expected to be the final session of the discussions on Palestine that have lasted almost a week.

The manpower lineup is as follows: Egypt, 120,000 troops; Iraq, 60,000 troops; Syria, 18,000; Lebanon, 8,000; Transjordan, 12,000.

Besides these, the Palestine Arabs are expected to be able to put into the field an estimated 10,000 fighting men, mostly of the semi-military organizations Najada and Futuwa.

Saudi Arabia and the Yemen did not disclose their armed strength.

There was still no indication in Beirut last night of the extent of the reported troop movements towards the Palestine frontiers.

A spokesman of the Muslim Brotherhood in Cairo said today that his semi-military organization is recruiting 10,000 members immediately as the first contingent of 50,000 volunteers to fight in Palestine, and said the contingent would be fully organized in about two weeks.

The spokesman said all members of his contingent would be Egyptians.

He asserted that the volunteers would be fully armed and well prepared for guerrilla warfare in Palestine. United Press, Associated Press and Reuters.

SOVIET MOVE TO PUSH U.S. OUT OF KOREA

Washington, Oct. 12.
Authoritative informants said today that the United States is not likely to accept Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov's proposal for simultaneous withdrawal of American and Soviet troops from Korea.

The decision, however, is up to Secretary of State Marshall.

Sources in the American delegation to the United Nations indicated when the proposal was first made last month that it was wholly unacceptable to the United States for two reasons:

(1) It is regarded as a Soviet move to muddy the waters in the United Nations and impede action on the American request that the UN itself work out a solution for the Korean problem.

(2) The Russians are believed to have a well-trained force of Korean Communists in their zone and simultaneous withdrawal of American and Russian troops would lay the country wide open to them since there is no comparable force in the American zone.

Broadcast
The text of the Moscow broadcast revealing the Soviet offer is: "On October 9 V.M. Molotov, Minister of Foreign Affairs of the U.S.S.R., sent General Marshall, United States Secretary of State, the following letter: 'The attitude taken up by the United States delegation in the Joint Soviet-American Commission in Seoul points to the fact that the United States delegation does not wish to continue the work of the Joint Commission for the purpose of arriving at an agreed decision on questions connected with the establishment of a provisional Korean Government. The Soviet Government is determined to observe the Moscow decision.'"

"The attitude of the U.S. delegation has made the formation of a provisional Democratic Government in accordance with the Moscow decision impossible, which hinders the establishment in Korea of a single Democratic Government."

"Providing the U.S.A. Government agrees to the withdrawal of troops at the beginning of 1948 the Soviet troops will be ready to leave Korea at the same time as the Korean people."

"Copies of this letter are being sent by me to the Governments of Great Britain and China." Associated Press.

At 5,000 today, the storm was reported about 600 miles due south of Tokyo, moving due east at five knots.

The center of the storm is now expected to pass about 100 miles north of Tokyo, with winds reaching 50 knots, gusts at 60 and 70 miles per hour.

Chiang Said To Counter Mukden Push BATTLE AT TIEHLING GROWS FIERCER

Peking, Oct. 12.
Press dispatches today said that Nationalist air and ground forces have launched a counter-offensive outside Tiehling, 40 miles north of Mukden, and the scene of what the Chinese press called a "major Manchurian battle."

The city has been under concentrated Communist attack for the past three days in what is considered a test of strength of Mukden's outlying defence centres.

The Nationalists are reported to have thrown squadrons of warplanes into a counter-offensive against Red artillery, battering at key positions.

These reports said the Communists, attempting to storm Tiehling and open the gateway to Mukden, were forced to withdraw in some sectors as a result of effective air action against their positions.

Red Commanders continued to throw the main force of their "sixth offensive" against the Kalyuang-Tiehling sector with some units apparently starting a flanking movement against the vital Fushun area, from which Mukden draws its water and electricity.

A Hsin Min Pao dispatch from Mukden said the situation at Fushun, where General Chen Cheng deployed some "Youth Army" to meet the Red attack, was "growing more threatening hourly."

"No Casualties"
One noteworthy feature of the conflict in Manchuria is the complete absence of casualty lists, not because of a desire by either side to prevent disclosure of information of value to the other, but more through lack of the necessary machinery.

The death of anyone of the rank of Colonel or under is hardly ever recorded.

It might take weeks or even months for the families of Nationalists killed in action to hear of the news.

Reuters summary of developments on other fronts says:—

(1)—A pitched battle is raging between the Communist troops under General Chen Yi and the Nationalist forces south of Suhsien, along the Tientsin-Pukow railway in North Anhwei Province. The Reds, destroying many bridges, and uprooting large sections of the line, are officially admitted to have displaced traffic near Pongpu, 100 miles northwest of Nanjing.

(2)—In East Hupei, Government columns are continuing their pursuit of the Communist forces routed in battle about 30 miles east of Hankow.

(3)—In Northeast Honan Province, Government troops are battling desperately to save the strategic Luichang railway (China's most important East-West communication line which runs through four provinces) and the city of Loyang, where a force of 20,000 Communists have penetrated into the eastern suburb.

Meanwhile, it is reported that Premier Chiang Kai-shek is planning a tour of inspection of South China, according to the semi-official Central Daily News.

The newspaper report said the Premier is expected to leave for Canton about October 20. United Press, Associated Press and Reuters.

Shoot Down
French Plane
Hanoi, Oct. 12.
Viet-Namense anti-aircraft fire hit a French transport plane carrying paratroopers over the town of Baoban.

The craft crashed into a mountainside, killing 15 persons, an official statement said yesterday.

Among the victims was the Assistant Chief of Staff for French troops in Indo-China.

The paratroopers were engaged in "police operations" which the French are pushing actively against the Viet-Namense in Northern Indo-China. Associated Press.

Gale Made Waterfalls Turn Upside Down

Washington, Oct. 12.
The typhoon in Iwojima this week turned waterfalls upside down and also picked up a three-ton trailer and blew it over a cliff.

This was reported to the Secretary of Navy by the command of a naval weather plane which started from Guam on Tuesday morning to track the storm and got caught in it.

The crew said at the peak of the storm on Tuesday morning the heads on the windmills at Iwojima were 160 ft. high and then broke off.

Displaced masts of the Iwojima lighthouse are believed to be the cause of the storm's fury, a shift in the storm's course which is taking place today, says Reuters.

The Weather

A strong anticyclone over the whole of China and the neighboring seas. There is low pressure from the Arctic to the Caribbean. The typhoon is moving ENE over the Bonin and Ryukyu.

GUARDEE DIDN'T LIKE 1/- GIFT TO PRINCESS

London, Oct. 11. No further action will be taken by the War Office in the case of a Grenadier Guardsman who wrote to a London newspaper complaining against a routine order stipulating that each Guardsman should pay one shilling towards the cost of a wedding present for Princess Elizabeth and was subsequently "crimined" for his action, a War Office official told Reuters tonight.

The Guardsman, J. Wright, wrote his letter of complaint to the London Daily Mirror, which drew the War Office's attention to the matter. The newspaper agreed that it was wrong to have conveyed the impression that the contribution was compulsory, and the officer who drafted the order was told it was "unfortunately worded."

Inquiry

According to the Daily Mirror, instead of his closing the letter, an inquiry was initiated at Wright's camp. The man was lined up and a sergeant, acting as a detective, asked "who did it?" To have trouble Wright stepped forward. He was marched before the duty officer, Major E.A.C. Bowes-Lyon, and received an order to disclose the contents of an army order. The sentence was a severe reprimand. Major Bowes-Lyon is second-cousin to the Queen.

"Irregular"

The War Office official told Reuters that "whatever the merits of Wright's complaint, he knowingly and deliberately broke a King's regulation by writing to a newspaper and disclosing the contents of the routine order in question. His sentence was slight, he could have been fined or confined to barracks. So far, as we are concerned no further action will be taken."—Reuters.

Missing Minesweeper Men Safe

Pearl Harbor, Oct. 12. A Navy plane today found the four missing minesweepers 440 miles northeast of Palmyra atoll and reported the three men on board "all seem to be in good health."

The 15-foot vessels, lost together for weeks, had been missing since Sept. 21 when they drifted away while the tug Edward M. Grimm was refueling at Palmyra.

"They were being incoed from Charleston, South Carolina, to Manila for use by a seaborne company," Associated Press.

SOVIET REACTS TO ZHUKOV ATTACK

London, Oct. 12. Moscow radio said today that the Soviet Government had protested to the Chilean Ambassador against a machine-gun burst fired at the Russian Embassy in Santiago on Thursday night.

A news broadcast heard in London said Deputy Foreign Minister Malik "summoned" Ambassador Cruz Ocampo and told him that "the Soviet Government insisted on the speedy investigation and severe punishment of those guilty of the incident."—Associated Press.

Censorship On China Mails

Shanghai, Oct. 12. Competent authorities have decided reimpose the censorship of mails and telegrams, and censorship will first be clamped on the areas governed by martial law, the China Press said today quoting reports from a "Government organ in Nanking."

Mails and telegrams to be censored will be:

1. Those which exchange information with Communists.
2. Publicly material of the Communist army.
3. Those which endanger the security of the Chinese Republic.
4. Those which undermine friendly relations with foreign countries.
5. Those which insult the head of the state.
6. Those which disturb social order.
7. Those which disclose military secrets.—Reuters.

CZECH CHILDREN TO TESTIFY

Nuremberg, Oct. 11. Czech children kidnapped by Germans from the razed Czech village of Lidice to be brought up as Nazis because they were "valuable," will testify at the trial of 14 former officials of the SS "Race and Settlement Office," which opened today.

All the defendants pleaded not guilty to war crimes and crimes against humanity through enslavement, abortion and extermination for "safeguarding of Nordic blood."

The Race and Settlement Office is also accused of executing and imprisoning "undesirable" non-Germans married to Germans.—Reuters.

The price is £15.10.0, purchase tax.—A.P.H.

ANTI-WOMEN SOCIETY ASSERTS ITSELF

London, Oct. 11. Britain, which lays claim to some of the strangest societies in the world, today added yet another to its list—The Anti-Women Society (for men's rights).

"We are not misogynists," Fred Uermull, President and Founder of the society, said. "But we believe that women have encroached too much upon men's rights, and will unless checked eventually deprive them of their independence. We must, therefore, harness the one-sided irrationalism and misguided actions of extreme feminism."

"Surrender"

"Women must surrender freely these essentially masculine employments. If man is to be denied those things he most ardently desires—security and a family life—and if women refuse their rightful responsibilities and challenge of child bearing, it will inevitably lead to national extinction."

"We stand for the reassertion of old values. As men, we are legally responsible for the upkeep of the family so we should be able to obtain employment without economic rivalry from women."

"Our work will be slow and on the uphill, but I am convinced that in the end we will achieve our aims, and at the same time lead women's thoughts and ideas in the right direction."

Inviting application for membership, the society sets out its main objective as:

1. Stop women's incursion into masculine fields.
2. Encourage more women to marry by agitating for a state grant for mothers.—Reuters.

Chinese Urge Return Of Hong Kong

Shanghai, Oct. 12. The local Chinese newspaper, China Sien Jih Pao, commenting on the British Parliamentary Mission, urged Britain to return Hong Kong to China.

The paper said, "Now that the British Parliamentary Mission has come to China, we wish to reiterate our demand for the return of Hong Kong and Kowloon, because so long as Hong Kong and Kowloon are not returned to their original owner, there will be a stain on Sino-British relations."—Reuters.

Letters From Readers

"Cripps The Cold" Sir—Simultaneously with the report of the transfer of British Gold Reserves from London to New York has come a reference by Sir Stafford Cripps to a "process of economic strangulation." Sir Stafford Cripps has a brain that is cold and clear. He can be relied upon not to be guilty of exaggeration.

The announcement of the transfer from the last reserve was "ludicrous." We are told in a way as to bring home to the British Public the "seriousness of the dollar position." Could it be more "ludicrous" utterance, coming out of a Treasury, Treasury, be imagined? Can Postponement to a greater height? The British Public know the position and are powerless in the matter.

Fighting virtually speaking alone for the purpose of saving the world and the wealth of the world, British public are in a position of necessity, against an incurable, ill-fated, sum of money that can be roughly estimated at forty thousand million American dollars. The debt was a world debt. I refer to the periods 1941-1946, 1939-1941. The incurring of the debt saved the wealth of the world. Never in history did a debt incurred by an agent of necessity bring a return as rich. It gave a return which could be calculated in hard cash at a figure fifty times in excess of the sum paid to secure it.

Britain alone, however, has lost to pay the debt. It is a debt which has been incurred by the British Government, and it is a debt which has been incurred by the British Government, and it is a debt which has been incurred by the British Government.

strangulation is the completely inevitable result.

If world opinion, headed by America, would face up to the proposition enunciated in the last paragraph and pronounce upon it, there is not a passing moment of doubt that the pronouncement would be a debt payable to England in gold dollars would be recognized. Gold would flow from New York to London and not vice versa. The agony of "gradual economic strangulation" would pass in a night. Economies are not governed by rule of thumb alone.

A mere pronouncement that the problem was being considered upon the above lines would, I am convinced, ease the position. Nothing more is required than that a spade should be called a spade, and that the hard facts should be examined and considered. To talk by way of solution, about a small loan from America to England, is but exasperating nonsense.

Let it be remembered always that "a gradual process of economic exhaustion" will of a certainty involve America, suffering at the moment, grave internal pains arising, largely, out of a surfeit of gold.

England is suffering from a shortage of gold because statesman politicians have dated to any starkly and openly what (if they have any real intelligence) they have privately thought. They have privately thought that America, in the event of a "gradual process of economic exhaustion" would be able to supply the gold which England needs.

Corregidor Hand-Over A Victory

Corregidor, Manila Bay, Oct. 12. As America's National Anthem rolled over top-side parade grounds the Stars and Stripes were lowered today for the last time.

First Lieutenant Buczek, and a colour guard of the United States Army Philippine Scouts, folded the flag neatly and gave way to Captain Vicente Alhambra, of the Second Military Police Battalion of the Philippine Army.

A Philippine colour guard then recured the garrison flag of the Philippine Republic and hoisted it to the masthead.

Corregidor, for the first time in 162 years was once again Philippine soil.

A crowd of 400 invited guests, including 30 veterans of Corregidor's five-month siege and its commander in peace and war, Major-General George Moore, looked on.

Memorial

As Master-Sergeant Gustave Rosenfeld put it: "If it were me I would not have turned it over—I would have kept it for a memorial."

President Roxas, accepting for the Philippines, put it differently:

"The American flag was lowered this time in victory, a victory of democracy, of justice, of love of freedom and undying devotion to the cause of peace all over the world."—Associated Press.

Schoolgirls Wreck Newspaper

Nanking, Oct. 12. More than 600 students of the Hunan Provincial Middle School for Girls in Kaileng, allegedly led by the school's principal (Ma Tse-chi), stormed into and wrecked the offices of the Chung Chou Wan Pao, the Tai Ho Jih Pao and the Northwest News Agency shortly after 8 p.m. last Friday, according to dispatches received here tonight from the Hunan provincial capital.

The attack was staged by the students following the publication by the Chung Chou Wan Pao on the previous day of a story implicating—the school's principal in an alleged misappropriation of CNRRA relief supplies to the school.

As the Tai Ho Jih Pao and the Northwest News Agency were also located in same building as that of the Chung Chou Wan Pao, they were also visited and wrecked by the students.

The Kaileng Newspapermen's Association held an emergency meeting yesterday, after which it submitted a detailed report of the attack to the authorities concerned, demanding the punishment of and compensation to the attackers.—Central News.

OVER-DOSE OF SLEEPING DRAUGHT

As a result of a quarrel with her husband, a Chinese female, Hui Kwai Hing, 30, of 230 Jaffe Road, 3rd floor, took an overdose of sleeping draught at 1.00 p.m. yesterday.

Police were notified and she was removed to a hospital in a serious condition and unconscious.

As a result of jealousy over husband having a mistress, Yui Put Shui, 52, of No. 96 Argyle Street, Mongkok, 1st floor, took a quantity of lyeol yesterday afternoon.

The police had her removed to Kowloon Hospital where her condition was reported to be "fair."

SPORTSMAN FOUND DEAD

Worcester, Oct. 11. Basil Trumpy, 25, of Worcester, a well known Rugby player, and a cricketer, was found dead at midnight beside a damaged motor-cycle on the Worcester-Kidderminster Road. He had been selected to play for Worcester Rugby Club against Coventry Extra today. He was returning from a work social at Birmingham.—Reuters.

He was rushed to hospital but died only a short time.

The girl, who was found shot after a dance at the station, was stated today to be "proceeding satisfactorily."—Reuters.

U.S. Move On Balkan Guerrillas

Lake Success, Oct. 11. The United Nations Political Committee approved last night a French-British compromise in the Balkan case which toned down a United States resolution accusing Yugoslavia, Albania, and Bulgaria of aiding Greek guerrillas.

The vote on the French-British proposal, which merely "takes account" of the report of a Security Council Investigating Commission, was 32 to 7. There were 13 abstentions with six nations of the 67-member committee absent.

This portion of the French-British amendment represented a conciliatory move to tone down an original American resolution which placed blame on the three Balkan nations for assisting Greek guerrillas.

The second paragraph in the amendment reading "calls upon Albania, Bulgaria and Yugoslavia to do nothing which could furnish aid and assistance to the said guerrillas" was passed by vote of 34 to 7 with 11 abstentions. The Russian group was against both actions.—Associated Press.

BABY SAID TO BE STABBED TO DEATH BY BANDIT

At about 10.30 p.m. yesterday a Chinese male, four years old, was reported to be stabbed to death while being carried along Reclamation Street.

One report says that a Chinese male, Cheung Kin Chung, aged about 30, accompanied by his wife with the child on her back, was proceeding along Reclamation Street when they were suddenly confronted by three men, two armed with revolvers, and one with a dagger.

Another report says the baby was being carried by the father. Cheung was said to raise the alarm when the robber armed with the dagger stabbed the child and killed him outright.

It was further reported that the robbers had been arrested. Enquiries from Yauwatt Police Station revealed only that the father had brought the child to the Police Station and said that it had been snatched.

ANGLO-CHINESE FRIENDSHIP

Mr. Attlee's Letter To Chang Chun

Truman's Appeal A Flop

New York, Oct. 11. This nation, which went overboard for an "18-day diet" and other food fads promoted on the slogan basis today appeared to be snubbing the Government's slogan campaign to save food.

The first week of the drive to feed Europe by saving food on meatless Tuesdays and eggless Thursdays appeared to be far from successful.

Restaurants, noting no public resentment when some of them turned down the President's plea to eliminate meat and eggs from menus once a week, seemed to be hopping on the non-compliance bandwagon and there appeared to be little likelihood that the campaign would take effect until the American people have been shown they should eliminate meat and poultry in a move to save grain.—United Press.

Luxury Cars For America

London, Oct. 12. A fleet of the world's most expensive and luxurious cars going to the United States in search of dollars was given a send-off today by the Minister for Economic Affairs, Sir Stafford Cripps.

The fleet consists of seven Rolls Royce Bentleys, the cheapest being a Bentley costing $3,250. Other Bentleys cost up to $4,500.

The Rolls Royce models will set their purchasers back anything from $3,750 to $4,750.

Equipped with special coachwork designed to appeal to American buyers, they will make a coast-to-coast tour of the United States starting in New York and covering about 20,000 miles.

Expressing a hope that the team will pick up orders over the next twelve months, the output of these luxury cars of about $5,000,000, Sir Stafford Cripps said: "Then we can feel we have accomplished something to help pay for meat, bread and other things we require from the dollar markets of the world."—Reuter.

"JANE"

A Great Role In The Future

Nanking, Oct. 11. The British Prime Minister, Mr. Clement Attlee, in a letter to Premier Chang Chun, expressed the hope that the present British Parliamentary Mission "may strengthen and tighten the bonds of friendship and sympathy" between Britain and China.

The letter, brought by the Mission which arrived here on Thursday, stressed that "to the problems of peace a solution now remains to be found."

The full text of the letter read: "Dear General Chang Chun; this letter will reach you by hand of the second Parliamentary delegation to leave this country for China."

"When its predecessors set out from the United Kingdom in the autumn of 1942, the star of the Allies was on the ascendant but was still barely visible over the horizon."

"Since then victory over the Axis powers has crowned our united armies; to the problems of peace, a solution now remains to be found."

"I trust that the present delegation may be able during their short stay to convey to the people of China something of our present difficulties here and steps we are taking to surmount them and that in so doing they may strengthen and tighten the bonds of friendship and sympathy between our two countries."

"They will I hope further convey my cordial greetings to you personally and my best wishes for the prosperity and welfare of your country."

Yours sincerely, Clement R. Attlee.

The head of the mission, Lord Ammon, is understood to have also conveyed a letter to President Chiang Kai-shek.

The strong bond which binds China and Britain together will not be broken, Lord Ammon said at a reception given by the Sino-British Cultural Association here last evening.

General of the Association, introducing the mission said: "The success of this mission even at this initial stage is already assured. Your country and ours had many similar experiences during the war and we are both now confronted by grave economic consequences of that unprecedented struggle."

Lord Ammon praised the work of the Sino-British Cultural Association and said that he and the mission would foster the age-long friendship between the two countries.

"We in England are greatly interested in the exchange of ideas and ideas with China."

Great Role

Lord Ammon praised the work of the Sino-British Cultural Association and said that he and the mission would foster the age-long friendship between the two countries.

AURIOL AT THE ABBEY

Paris, Oct. 11. M. Vincent Auriol, President of the Republic, will probably go to London to attend the marriage of Princess Elizabeth and Lieutenant Philip Mountbatten on Nov. 20.

A spokesman said: "There has been no official decision yet, but it is very probable that President Auriol will be asked by the Council of Ministers to represent France at the Royal marriage."—Reuter.

PAID 45 YEARS LATER

Nottingham, Oct. 11. The station master for Nottingham today collected unpaid fare from a traveller who had paid in 1902.

The letter which accompanied it said: "I well recollect about 45 years ago travelling from Victoria Station, Nottingham, to Bedford and Bulwell and I forgot to pay my fare. I now enclose one shilling which I believe will defray the cost."

The letter was signed "A. Zecheus."—United Press.

Budget In Autumn

London, Oct. 12. The Chancellor of the Exchequer, Mr. Hugh Dalton, will definitely introduce an Autumn Budget during the next session of Parliament which opens on Oct. 20, a Treasury spokesman stated today.

It was also authoritatively learned that Mr. Dalton does not exclude the possible use of other financial measures, not requiring a financial bill.

These were thought in financial circles today to include an increase in purchase taxes on goods and possibly some slight decrease in food subsidies. Any drastic decrease in subsidies was considered highly unlikely.—Reuter.

GLASS COACH FOR PRINCESS

London, Oct. 12. Princess Elizabeth will ride in a glass coach when she accompanies the King and Queen in the procession from Buckingham Palace to the House of Lords for the opening of Parliament on Oct. 21.

In the coach with the Princess will be her Lady-in-Waiting, the Honorable Mrs. Andrew Elphinstone, to whose daughter she recently stood godmother.

The King and Queen will ride in the Irish coach—a coach acquired by Queen Victoria on a visit to Ireland.—Reuter.

Betrayal Charges Against Agent

Paris, Oct. 12. Pierre Culioli, former British Secret Service agent in Occupied France, is now appearing before a Paris military judge to answer accusations that he betrayed British Secret Service parachutists to the Gestapo.

Culioli is defending himself, it is reported, by saying he pretended to be a Nazi well-wisher but was really acting as a spy for the British Allied agents. He is reported to have admitted having shown secret Allied arms dumps to the Germans; but he says it was only to stop other dumps being seized in a threatened Gestapo raid.—Our Own Correspondent.

AMOK ON TRAIN

Singapore, Oct. 12. A Malay armed with only a penknife ran amok last night in the dining car of a train near Kuala Lumpur, Malayan Union, and killed a British soldier, four Chinese and a Malay, before escaping into the jungle.

Two other British soldiers suffered "critical" injuries and another Chinese also was wounded.

In Singapore, an Indian detective ran amok and wounded three persons with pistol shots before he was subdued.—Associated Press.

GREEK QUAKE

Athens, Oct. 12. Houses were destroyed and casualties were caused in several regions of Greece yesterday during an earthquake, stated by the Athens Observatory. It has been estimated 142 miles south-west of Athens, the Athens News Agency reported.—Reuter.

German P.W. Weds Kent Girl

London, Oct. 11. Canterbury's registry office on Saturday was the scene of the first wedding in east Kent of a German prisoner of war and an English girl.

The bridegroom was Gustav Jehle (27), medical orderly at the POW camp near Dover, and a native of Stuttgart, and the bride Miss Rose Garfield (21), an orphan employed at a Margate restaurant.

The couple met four months ago at Sturry, near Canterbury, where Jehle was working. She speaks no German, and he very little English, but the romance developed despite language difficulties.

On release, Jehle will not return to Germany, but will take up farm work with the Kent Agricultural Executive Committee.

After a reception at a Canterbury cafe, there was another at a working men's club near the POW camp for Jehle's fellow prisoners.—Reuter.

DECISIVE!

Los Angeles, Oct. 12. The State Democratic Chairman, James Roosevelt, today telegraphed the columnist Drew Pearson on a statement Pearson made over the radio that Mr. Roosevelt intended to run for the Vice-Presidency.

He said he was not a candidate, would not accept nomination and would not serve if elected.—United Press.

Soviet Attack On Spaak

Moscow, Oct. 11. The Literary Gazette, which has singled out President Truman, Secretary of State George Marshall, Winston Churchill and others for attack, today turned on Belgian Premier Paul Henri Spaak.

Loris Efimov made Spaak the central figure of a cartoon which showed the Belgian leader as a human cannon firing a broadside into "the sovereignty of small countries."

(Spaak, speaking before the United Nations Political Committee recently rebuked members of the Russian bloc and rejected Soviet contentions that the present Government of Greece is illegal.)—Associated Press.

Secret Report On Trend In Japan

London, Oct. 12. It was learned today that topics discussed during the closed sessions of the Institute of Pacific Relations on Sept. 27 and 28 included the following:

1. Reports from Japan that the present tranquillity was deceptive and that forces were gathering under the protection of the Allied occupation which may prevent the essential economic revolution and re-establish a reactionary regime.

2. The position of India and Pakistan in Asia. The resolution said, "If they can agree on a common policy, their combined influence will certainly be used to support the colonial peoples' claims. They should stand outside the Russian and American blocs and not as intermediaries."

The conference claimed, however, that there was danger of Pakistan linking with the Arab states of the Middle East and joining in their quarrels with the West.

The foregoing were discussed by groups representing India, Pakistan, China, Korea, Japan and Southeast Asia. In the final session speech, the chairman said Asia could not be considered as united except in opposition to western domination.—United Press.

London, Oct. 12. The Chancellor of the Exchequer, Mr. Hugh Dalton, will definitely introduce an Autumn Budget during the next session of Parliament which opens on Oct. 20, a Treasury spokesman stated today.

It was also authoritatively learned that Mr. Dalton does not exclude the possible use of other financial measures, not requiring a financial bill.

The King and Queen will ride in the Irish coach—a coach acquired by Queen Victoria on a visit to Ireland.—Reuter.

Dimitrov Tries To Explain It

Sofia, Oct. 11. Prime Minister Georgi Dimitrov, in an exclusive United Press interview, said today that American and British intervention made it impossible for him to commute the death sentence of Agrarian leader Nicola Petkov.

Petkov was convicted on charges of seeking to overthrow Dimitrov's Government by force.

"It became impossible to commute Petkov's sentence after the rude attempt of British and American representatives in Sofia to intervene in the activity of sovereign Bulgarian justice," Dimitrov said.

"It can be said directly that these interventions had a big share of the responsibility for the fate of Petkov himself."

In lengthy answers to a series of questions submitted by the United Press, Dimitrov replied point by point to the criticisms of Petkov's trial and execution made by the Western Powers and the press.

He said Petkov prepared a coup d'etat "against the moment of direct Anglo-American intervention in Bulgaria which he expected on or after the evacuation of Bulgarian territory by Soviet troops."

The subsequent military coup d'etat "against the moment of direct Anglo-American intervention in Bulgaria which he expected on or after the evacuation of Bulgarian territory by Soviet troops."

Uprising On Turkish Border

Istanbul, Oct. 12. A serious uprising has taken place in the Djelich area on the Turkish-Syrian border near the railway linking Turkey with Iraq, reports reaching here from Aleppo said today.

The revolt was said to have been fomented by a Kurdish chieftain with the aim of proclaiming Kurdish independence. He was reported to have said that the movement was directed against Turkey, not Syria, and that the Turkish Government was despatching forces to the area. Communist elements were reported to have supported the movement.

No confirmation of the reports was available here.

In June this year, Kurdish tribesmen led by Mullah Mustafa Al Barazani, who fled to Persia in 1945 after an abortive revolt against the Iraq Government, were badly defeated by Persian troops after several weeks of fighting. At the same time, several Kurdish chieftains associated with the movement for a Kurdish Republic in the province of Kurdistan, surrendered to the Iraq Government.—Reuter.

CHURCHILL AS GODFATHER

Utrecht, Oct. 12. Mrs. Christopher Soames, Mr. Winston Churchill's daughter, deputized for Mr. Churchill, who was godfather, at the christening here today of Princess Maria Christina, fourth daughter of Princess Juliana of the Netherlands.

Queen Wilhelmina, who is shortly to retire temporarily from her Royal duties for health reasons, drove through a crowded street to the Gothic Cathedral for the simple ceremony.—Reuter.

PEACEFUL RUSSIA

Providence, R.I., Oct. 12. Russia does not want war today because it is not prepared for war, Henry A. Wallace said in an interview here.

"Russia has every reason to want peace," he declared. "She has vast areas to develop and exploit. Her attitude largely reflects ours. But here is immediate and compelling."—Associated Press.

BRITISH COUNCIL SCHOLARSHIPS.

The British Council have allotted to Hong Kong three scholarships available at institutions of higher education in Great Britain for the session 1948/49. In special cases the scholarship may be extended to two years. The maximum value of a scholarship is £350 for one academic year plus fares.

Candidates wishing to apply must satisfy the following conditions:—

- They must be of Chinese race.
- They must be living and working in Hong Kong.
- They must be able to produce a birth certificate.
- They must be proficient
in written and spoken English.
- They must be between the ages of 18 and 25 years, and possess a degree of the University of Hong Kong or equivalent professional qualifications.

Undergraduate courses will not be recommended and applications are specially invited from doctors, nurses, educationists, students of art and music and broadcasters, though scholarships are not restricted to these professions.

Prospective candidates should apply in their own HAND-WRITING to Mr. G. F. Rees,

ROYAL WEDDING SCHEDULE

Two Archbishops In Abbey Ceremony

Trouble At The Opera

Paris, Oct. 11.
The Paris Opera ballet corps decided today to refuse to appear on the opera stage until a settlement has been reached in a dispute between them and the stage hands over the appearance of Serge Lifar, leading French dancer.

The stage hands went on strike early last week when Lifar, who has been accused and cleared of collaboration, was due to make his first postwar appearance at the Opera.

The ballet corps, strongly supporting the return of Lifar, lodged a vigorous protest with the Ministry of Arts, Youth and Information, but no compromise since then has been reached.

In a communique today the dancers stated that they would continue rehearsals and training to be ready to perform at a moment's notice. But their decision is expected to bring a cancellation of the regular weekly ballet programmes, as well as such operas as "Faust," which require ballet participation.—Reuter.

FANTASTIC WASTE

London, Oct. 12.
Heat from ten million tons of coal is being wasted in smoking chimneys in Britain this year,
Sir George Elliott, President of the National Smoke Abatement Society, declared.

"Except for this fantastic waste, we should have no difficulty of earning foreign exchange by the export of coal,"
he said.—Reuter.

SYRIAN CABINET

Damascus, Oct. 12.
The Syrian Cabinet which resigned last week, was reconstituted today by Prime Minister Jamil Mar-dam Bey to include opposition parties and independents.

Jamil Mardam Bey becomes the Foreign Secretary as well as Premier.—Reuter.

Royal Princes As Page Boys

London, Oct. 11.
The King, with Princess Elizabeth on his arm, will lead the Royal wedding attendants up the aisle of historic Westminster Abbey at 11.30 a.m. on Nov. 20, when Princess Elizabeth marries Lieutenant Philip Mountbatten. The King will give his daughter away.

Arrangements announced today by the Lord Chamberlain show that the wedding timetable has been planned to the minute.

The King and "Her Royal Highness Lady" as the Princess is described in official phraseology, will drive together to the Abbey, sitting side by side in one of the State chriages escorted by the King's escort of Household Cavalry.

They will leave Buckingham
Palace at 11.16 a.m.
One minute before 11.16,
Lieutenant Philip Mountbatten will arrive at the Poet's Corner of the Abbey.

The Dean of Westminster,
the Very Reverend A. C. Don, will receive the King and Princess Elizabeth at the Abbey's great West Door at 11.28 a.m.

Two minutes later, the Royal bride, accompanied by the King and attended by her pages and bridesmaids, will walk up the aisle.

The service will be performed by the Archbishop of Canterbury, Dr. Geoffrey Fisher, assisted by the Dean of Westminster and the Precentor of Westminster, the Rev. C.M.
Armitage.

After the pronouncement and the blessing by the Archbishop of Canterbury, the bride and bridegroom, attended by Princess Margaret, who is one of the bridesmaids, and the pages,

A SOCIAL WHIRL

London, Oct. 11.
Princess Elizabeth will board a Royal train on Monday morning for a ride from Scotland to London—a journey into an ocean of busy preparations for her November wedding.

Except for one week-end in a capitol to be godmother to a friend's baby—daughter of her lady in waiting, Lady Elphinstone—Elizabeth has been holding her lengthily at Balmoral with her finest, Lieutenant Philip Mountbatten, who has been a guest of the Royal Family.

In the hours of privacy the couple have shared gay evenings in the castle and morning horseback rides over the Scottish hills.
But during the Princess' few public appearances, her Consort to be, has stayed in the background.

Ahead of the Princess lie sittings of her ultra-secret wedding gown and the rest of her crisis-limited wedding wardrobe. At her express wish, Norman Hartnell, officials and Norman Hartnell,
the Royal dressmaker, have clung stubbornly to her bans on publicity about her clothes despite mounting hints.

There are only five weeks remaining before the whirl of wedding week social events begins—
a wedding present party in St.
James' Palace, a dinner with guests from Europe's crowned houses, a huge reception and finally, the wedding.

She will go along to Parliament a week from Tuesday to watch her father open the third session of Parliament. It will be a lesson in procedure that some day she will have to follow as ruling Queen.

There also are a host of personal details to be settled—conferences with her eight bridesmaids, deciding whether to give support.—Reuter.

FOR BRITAIN

London, Oct. 12.
The Netherlands Government has given 500 Friesian heifers to British farmers as a token of the sympathy of the Dutch people with British farmers in their sufferings through floods last winter.

The cattle will be sold here for the benefit of the Agricultural Disaster Fund.—Reuter.

Scientific Warfare Experiments

Brisbane, Oct. 12.
A great expansion and acceleration of the Empire's scientific warfare preparations in Central Australia is to take place. Cost of the project is now estimated at £23,000,000.

Four hundred British scientists and technicians are shortly coming to Australia to develop and test certain scientific warfare weapons which have been "born" since the rocket-range plans were formulated. Immediately after the war, The Australian and British Governments have made arrangements now "beyond experiments with rocket-bombs" and "super-sonic aircraft" it is stated in Canberra.
Secrecy has been redoubled,
but widespread rumour concerns what is virtually a winged bomb with a range of "some thousands of miles" guided with the assistance of stellar navigation.

Speed-Up.
Australian scientists are cooperating fully in the experiments, which have been faring out to universities in the capital cities. Furthermore a party of 60 Australian scientists are leaving for England in the New Year for special studies. On their return to Australia they will act as instructors.
The entire project is now being speeded up. It is understood. One runway five miles long has been completed, and arrangements made to receive secret weapons to be shipped from Britain shortly.

The Prime Minister, Mr.
Chifley, is known to rely heavily on small scientific warfare teams in preference to the massed manpower of the past two wars. As a matter of imperial policy all Australian developments will be available to the whole Commonwealth.

U.N. Vote On Colonies

Lake Success, Oct. 11.
Despite opposition by colonial powers, supported by the United States, a Soviet proposal asking that the countries administering non-self-governing territories should transmit information on the participation of the local populations in the work of local organs, was endorsed by the United Nations Trusteeship Committee today
by a vote of 24 for and 19 against.

The United States delegate, Mr. Francis Sayre, opposing the Soviet proposal, said that it was in direct conflict with the provisions of the Charter.
He added: "My Government has, in practice, transmitted information on Governmental institutions as a voluntary act and expects to do so in the future if such action is not misunderstood or misinterpreted."—Reuter.

CHINA COAST MANSLAUGHTER

Los Angeles, Oct. 12.
Stellos Montanos, 52, merchant seaman of Brooklyn,
New York, was convicted last night by a Federal Court jury of involuntary manslaughter
of William Dettlef, Cincinnati, first mate of the USS Francis Scott Key, off the China coast
last April 24.

Montanos, who had been in custody since the ship docked here on May 25, testified that he had no recollection of a quarrel in which the Government alleged Dettlef was stabbed fatally. He died in hospital at Chinwangtao.—Associated Press.

GOOD NEWS FOR HOUSEWIVES

London, Oct. 12.
Sir William Savage, expert on bacteriological diseases, endeared himself to housewives throughout the world when he told a health conference in London today that washed dishes should be left to dry instead of being wiped, as a method of preventing disease.—United

RETIREMENT

Washington, Oct. 12.
"The Armed Forces," an unofficial but usually well-informed service publication, said today that Adm.
Louis E. Denfeld, Commander-in-Chief of the Pacific Fleet, probably will succeed Adm. Chester Nimitz as Chief of Naval Operations about December 1.—United Press.

MONKEYS IN CORSETS

Jacksonville, Ill., Oct. 12.
A prominent physiologist disclosed today plans to confine 40 monkeys in tight corsets for two years in an experiment to determine whether the proposed new fashion for women—lightly corsetted corsets—could be injurious to health.

Dr. Andrew C. Ivy, Vice-President of the University of Illinois, said he believes tight corsets help cause ulcers of the stomach.—United Press.

APPEALS TO MAYORS

Washington, Oct. 11.
President Truman's Citizens' Food Committee last night asked the mayors of 1,000 American cities to back the voluntary food savings for Europe drive by organising local conservation committees.

"President Truman is expected to follow up, early next week, by telegraphing a similar appeal to the 48 state governors for proclamations endorsing meatless and poultryless days and creating citizens committees in each state. The telegraphs dispatched to the mayors of all cities of 10,000 or more population bore
the signature of Charles Luckman, National Committee chairman.

They called attention to the "grave emergency confronting the hungry people of Europe and the responsibility this places on us as a free people."—Associated Press.

GREEK AIRFIELD PROJECT

Accra, Oct. 12.
The head of the American mission, Dwight Griswold, today announced a million-dollar plan to make five airfields in battle-torn Northern Greece suitable for winter use.

Improvements, including the installation of steel-planked runways, will be made at Larissa, Kavalla, Kozani, Salonika and Jannina. In addition, repairs will be carried out at Hassanli airport in Athens.—United Press.

BLESSINGS

Mexico City, Oct. 12.
The Archbishop of Mexico
scatters blessings with true liberality. He blesses buildings, fishing craft, farms—and, recently, the elevator which was to take him to the roof of a newly-blessed building.

The effect on the building was doubtless beneficial, but the elevator must have been in a sorry state of grace when blessed, for it stuck half-way and it took an hour and a half to release the Grace, during which time the imprecations of mechanics must have counteracted any good effects bestowed by the archiepiscopal benediction.—Our Own

Their Cruelty Was Businesslike

Nuernberg, Oct. 12.
S.S. Major General Otto Ohlendorf, whose Einsatz Commandos are accused of killing 1,000,000 persons the Nazis considered "racially inferior," testified today that the mass slayings of the Eastern front during the war were a terrific strain on his own men.

AIRPORT CURRENCY ARREST

London, Oct. 12.
A 26-year-old Frenchman,
who said his name was Michel Leymat, was arrested at London Airport yesterday when Customs officials found £3,000 in English currency on him.

Leymat was charged with importing prohibited goods and was told at Uxbridge Court today that he had made himself liable to a fine of £18,000 and two years imprisonment.

His hearing was adjourned until Monday so that he could have legal representation.
Leymat pleaded guilty.—Unit-

HEIL HITLER IN BLOOD

Frankfurt, Oct. 12.
The American Military Court
at Dachau today sentenced to death by hanging Dr. Otto Hellmuth, former Nazi Gauleiter of the district of "Main-Frankonia," together with seven others who stood trial with him.
Hellmuth, who wrote "Hell Hitler" with his blood on a

Japs Said To Exploit U. S. And Soviet

Sydney, Oct. 12. Mr. W. MacMahon Ball, former member of the Allied Council for Japan, said in an article written for the "Sunday Telegraph" that "Japan's policy today is to exploit in every possible way America's fear and suspicion of Russia and Communism."

He said: "It would be probably false to say Japan's present leaders desire another war. They have too fresh a memory of the risks involved. But they certainly appreciate the atmosphere of hostility between America and Russia. The present atmosphere provides them a superb opportunity to play off Russia against America. They are fully aware of their strategic importance to both great powers."

"Common Sense"

"At present General MacArthur controls Japan. So it is merely common sense to play up to the United States. The Japanese are anxious to co-operate with General MacArthur's headquarters in processing Japanese reparations from Soviet-controlled areas. They are eager to co-operate with Allied intelligence and counter-intelligence organizations. They know that two years ago these bodies were mainly concerned with catching up with the Japanese militarist and ultra-nationalists where they are almost wholly concerned with catching up with Communist or Russian agents."

Mr. MacMahon Ball said the Japanese still want to please General MacArthur but now their "primary political motive is to qualify for American aid in terms of the Truman Doctrine."—United Press.

Geisha Wins Libel Suit--And Loves On

Tokyo, Oct. 12. The Public Procurator's Office today indicted a Japanese author and publisher for criminal libel after a month-long investigation of a libel suit filed against them by a 43-year-old former geisha.

She served a prison term for Japan's most sensational sex slaying. "Sadako Abe, who even today is known throughout the nation as 'Sadako' because of the nature of the sensational slaying of her lover in 1936, complained that the book entitled 'Geishas of a Nymphomaniac' allegedly portraying her amorous life distorted the actual facts of her life. The author, Ichiro Kimura, and the publisher, Soketsu Ishigami, saw their book become a best seller, selling 100,000 copies within two months at 50 yen (US$1) under the army conversion rate. During the trial in 1936, Onoda testified that she was in the habit of squeezing the neck of her lover while they made love. One night she found she had strangled him to death. Onoda was sentenced to 15 years in prison but was released in 1942 on account of good behavior. Onoda recently told the people that she still loves her former lover, Kichizo Ishida."

Other United Press messages say the House of Representatives today voted to abolish adultery altogether as a crime under Japanese law. Action came as the House, by 74 to 66 votes, defeated an amendment to the criminal code which would abolish the present adultery law providing punishment only for women. The abolition of the present law was suggested by the government in the spirit of the new constitution stipulating equal rights for women. Matsumura contended there must be punishment for adultery which, he contended, was an action "destroying marriage from without and impairing morals."—United Press.

Character Building For Women

Character building and educating young women to become self-supporting and useful citizens, is the aim of the Chinese Women's Welfare Association of Nanjing, which has established a branch in Hong Kong under the Chairmanship of Miss Cecilia W. F. Shen.

In an interview with the "China Mail," Miss Shen said that Chinese women had, in the past, taken a back seat. They had been ignorant not only of their own country but other countries. Their chief concern had been to prepare themselves for marriage.

"In this age of enlightenment, it is essential that women take a more active interest in what is going on and be independent of others," said Miss Shen.

Classes

Miss Shen said that her Association is starting classes on foreign languages, domestic hygiene, care of children, house-keeping, cooking, needlework, knitting, embroidery work, hand-drawn thread work, gardening, poultry raising, physical culture and the manufacture of toys and other articles.

Over 100 girls have been enrolled and are under tuition at the Association's class room at 29 Thomson Road, Wanchai, and 128 Waterloo Road, Kowloon.

Articles made by the students are on exhibit at the Association's offices, Room 414, Alexandra Building, Hong Kong.

The Chinese Women's Welfare Association will help any young woman who is willing to learn. Those wishing to enrol may register at the Association's offices. There are no fees.

Bridgehead On Rim Of Asia

Lake Success, Oct. 11.
In a bitter answer to the U.S. statement on Palestine in the United Nations debate, Syria's Faris Al Khoury accused the U.S. Government of conspiring with the Jews because of internal political pressure within the United States. The Arabs, he stated, would never capitulate to any foreign invasion.

He said it was evident that the United States had no real intention respecting the principles of the United Nations Charter.

No election here has ever passed without American political parties making solemn promises to enhance and support Zionist political dreams, he added. "No enquiry commission for Palestine has ever been free from United States intervention attempting to exert pressure to realise the absurd reparations of Zionism."

Al Khoury added: "Mr. Johnson referred to American contribution in the First World War. We are led to conclude that those sacrifices by Americans were not made for Arabs or to liberate their land, but rather to present Palestine to the Jews."

Fantastical

The Syrian delegate said that the United States Government must know the historical claims of Zionism were a "fantastical pretext."

Certainly, the leaders of United States policy know these facts very well. They know what they are doing. It is well known that the intention of American Jews—especially those in New York—is to launch an invasion on the economies of the whole eastern world. To achieve that, they aspire to create for themselves a state on the rim of Asia and thus establish a bridgehead which would serve as headquarters of their activities. Faris Al Khoury then declared that such a Jewish state could only exist with foreign support which could come from American Jewry alone.

"It is with United States dollars alone that the Jews in Palestine are able to achieve any prosperity," he added. "The United States Government under the pressure of those potent fortune-seekers has already exempted from taxation millions of dollars to support Jewish immigration to Palestine."

Inhuman

Al Khoury asked whether it was in accordance with the justice of the Charter, to expel from their homes, Arabs in Palestine to make room for "foreign intruders." "Were President Wilson's 14 points and the League Covenant, based on recognition of the right of conquest and

New York, Oct. 12. The stock market finished a somewhat haphazard week with aircraft and metals moving upward, while many leaders fell late in trading. Bidding for aviation was reported based on expectations of big government plane orders. While declines were plentiful, advances ranging from fractions to two points or so predominated.

Transfers totalled 410,000 shares. Gainers included Grumman Aircraft, Lima Hamilton, Continental Oil, Douglas Aircraft, Republic Aviation, Lockheed.

Among losers were Woolworth, Western Union, Texas Company, Chesapeake and Ohio.

Plotting

"It does not require much ingenuity to understand who those volunteers will be, nor surmise with whom this plan was conspired and at whose suggestion the United States proposed it. Such plotting will not escape the United Nations alertness," Al Khoury continued.

"Palestine Arabs whose fundamental rights are endangered by the partition cannot be expected to turn their left cheek after they had been smitten. They, and the Arabs of other countries, are affected by flagrant injustice. They earnestly hope the General Assembly will find a workable solution based on the United Nations Charter, and without shedding innocent blood. But the Arabs are unlikely to capitulate to any scheme which puts a foreign intruder in Palestine, nor are they ready to evacuate a soil which was watered by centuries of blood."

Al Khoury referred to the Jewish Agency representative, Tabbi Silver's recent statement that "trained manpower available in Palestine" would be available to the United Nations to maintain law and order.

"This Jewish threat is now fully confirmed by the United States representative in his advice to form a volunteer police force. In the face of this challenge, the Arabs cannot but accept the challenge," the Syrian delegate declared.—Reuter.

Paris, Oct. 11.—The French runner, Marcel Hansemme, broke the 16-mile-old French record for the three-quarters of a mile at Poitiers today, when he covered the distance in 3 minutes 4.8 seconds.

The former record of 3 minutes 0.6 seconds, was set up by Jules Ladougueux in 1893.

The world record for the half mile, set by the Swede, Andersson, in 1904, is 2 minutes 5.0 seconds.—Reuter.
